Development

Check keyboard accessibility – start with the correct HTML for links, buttons and form controls.

Use ARIA patterns to let people who use assistive tech know what's going on.